Leaving Our Paw Prints Behind

Branch Brook Park Scenery

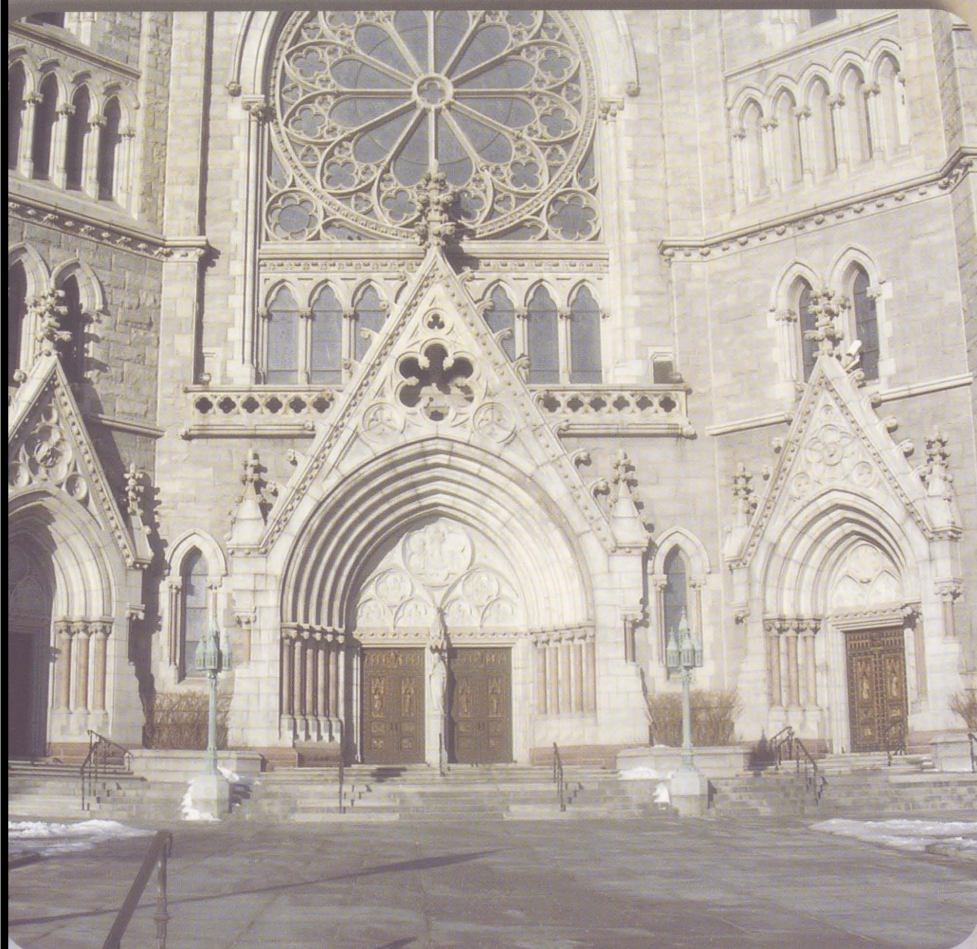

A school with the best view in Newark. How many schools can honestly say they have a better view of our environment than us? Looking out of our classroom windows, the atmosphere that surrounds Barringer created an ambiance that kept us coming back for another look. Now as an alumnus, every experience we have will always remind us of the cold icy winters and the warm demanding summers that enveloped our beloved school.

Setting A Legacy to Follow

Ater
relocating four times and surviving a change of the school name, from Newark High School to Barringer High School, 170 years later our school still continues to blossom and grow with each passing year. But Barringer wouldn't be everything it is today without the inspiring souls that once walked and inhabited these classrooms. Starting with Barringer's first principal, Nathan Hedges, every other faculty member, principal and student who took a breathe in Barringer's hallways supplied a memory that shaped our school. Each personality left behind a radiant and promising legacy to live up to, challenging others to achieve the next level.
Because Barringer was the first public high school in New Jersey, we provided the gateway for everyone else to shine through. And being the third-oldest high school in the country, you can imagine that our legacy is well known and we serve as a Big Brother for all those who follow our paw prints.

08-09

There's nothing more memorable than your four years of high-school. These years shape who you are in the future. Throughout these chaotic years you evolve into a unique individual who will impact the lives of many you will meet. For the most part, in high school you can even find or lose yourself, and what better place to grow than Barringer. As you flip through each page...reflect on how you developed into the person you have become.

Ten years from now when you look at these pages again and your mind retraces your memory's paw prints again, you'll be glad your four years were spent in Barringer High.

Nature hypnotizes us into always remembering where we came from. Whenever we think of Branch Brook Park we will recall our high school days.

What's greater than to be the face of the graduating class of 2009? And what's even better is you get to share the pages with the rest of 09's graduates. The years up and we're moving on to bigger and better things. Each year we're going to out live our last. What prettier picture than our canvas of success. As you flip through each page of this book and reminisce about the person you crushed, loved, lusted for, or was just friends with, remember you made it all the way to the end and accomplished your biggest goal... graduating.

Take time to remember each face pasted on these pages and be glad you know them...who knows, they may be famous in the future.

SENIORS '09

The four years of work, requirements and exams are finally over. Teachers that nagged us for our work, called parents for discussions, and prepared us for tests, are now memories. Each class we endured can be looked back on as either annoying or amusing, but hopefully, we can progress with our knowledge obtained from each of these classes. We learned and suffered some struggles, but obviously we passed. We did our best, not for someone else to mention, but for ourselves.

The four years of friends, good times, memories, events, and fun is sadly over. We've laughed and smiled whenever and wherever because we know we made the best of our high school years. Goofing around is an instinct and we did as much as possible. At times, some people got offended or annoyed, but as long as it was harmless fun, we had the right to enjoy ourselves. We didn't waste our time being solitary or boring. We socialized and visualized maximizing our senior year and accomplished just that. High school is something to truly miss and reminisce about years later.

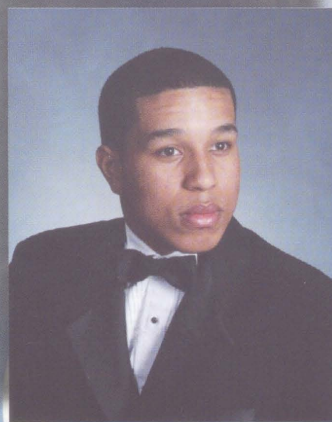

The four years of passing each required class and obtaining each and every credit, we overcame. As we grabbed that diploma, we smiled with pride because we did what was told and we succeeded beyond limitations expected. We graduated because we deserved to and now we're moving to the real world where we can contribute ourselves in our own unique ways. The four years of high school, which is said to be one of life's best experiences, was indeed just that. We keep moving forward because life has more in store for us. We'll progress even further to receive life's great rewards.

Faculty

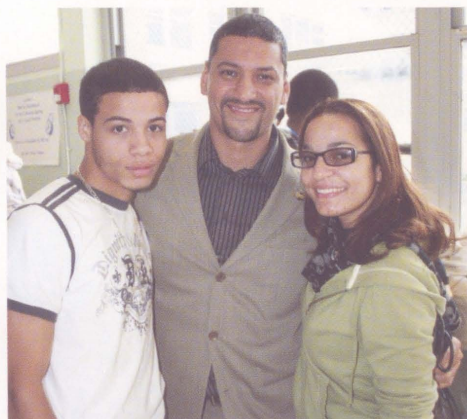

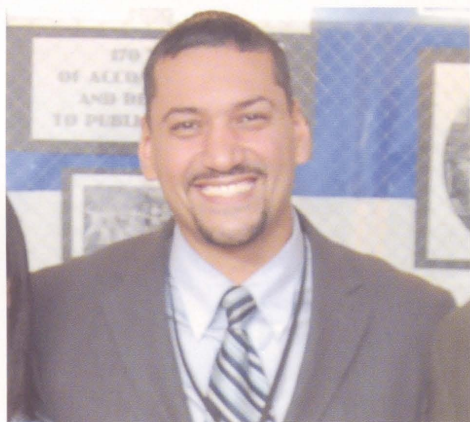

At Barringer, we are sure there are some familiar faces that you've grown to know all too well. Each person has watched and helped you sprout into the intelligent person you are today. They have gone above and beyond their classroom duties to make sure your education was to the highest degree of excellence... as well as your well being too. Not only the hard working principals, vice principals, and teachers but the other soldiers, like the custodians, security staff, and cafeteria women.

Every single day we have the luxury of working in clean, classrooms. We are blessed to eat in a cafeteria that's clean with well prepared lunches that nourish us until we retreat home. All the while the brave security guards keep us safe in our home away from home.

Take a look at the many people who took up space in your life from the hours of 8-2:40 and so on. Believe me, these will be the people you will never forget. No matter how much you dislike them now...when you're gone, you'll come back to them one way or another. You just can't escape their grip.

Principal Dr. Jose Aviles

There are no real secrets to being successful in life.

Hard work and determination are the key ingredients. Once they are set in place you will achieve. You are my first graduating class at Barringer. In a sense you are pioneers. Many new traditions have been put into place here and you will be known as the class who started them.

Congratulations, good luck & God bless!

Your teachings echo through the walls of Barringer

Staff members retiring and leaving the pack will always be remembered. They are leaving because they feel they have done their job to the highest limits. They have influenced many through their teachings and their character. Some have stayed a couple of years, and some have made Barringer home for decades. Within their own durations, they have left behind their paw prints forever stamped in the floors and halls of Barringer High School. The teachers retiring this year will be missed in the classrooms years and years ahead.

Sports

Let me introduce to you Barringer's finest athletes. Our Blue Bears can overcome any obstacle you can throw at them. In the face of fear, they laugh and come out on top. If they were ever to be trapped in the dark, they'll fight and claw their way to the light. No one can match the Blue Bear's bravery they have deep in their uniforms.

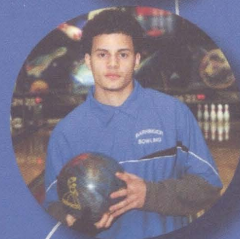

Who has the most popular name being screamed at games? Take a wild guess... BARRINGER!

What is the sound you hear over the entire crowd? You guessed it...the fearless Blue Bear fans, and what roars over the crowd... "Go Blue Bears!"

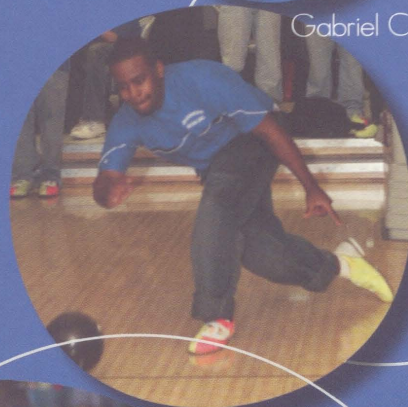

Barringer has produced some of the most talented people you've ever met. In fact, class of 1978's Andre Tippett made the NFL Hall of Fame. Who knows who might be next graduating in the year of 2009. Check out the Barringer's athletes and their passions.

Bowling

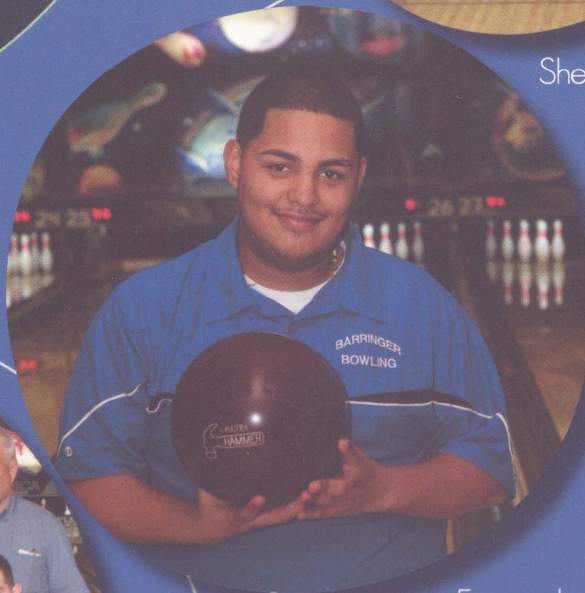

Rolling a ball down a lane to take out ten pins is not as easy as it sounds. This sport includes precision and technique. Practice and games help master their bowling skills. Strikes and spares as well as skill and persistency are what this team used to defeat their opponents. Although a perfect 300 score is rare, Barringer's Bowling Team scored high and had fun doing it.

Bottom Row: Dominick Jordan, Dante Spence

The Cross Country Team were truly committed to endure their distant runs and most importantly finished them in front of the pack. Pacing, climbing up hills, and sprinting the final stretch were all a part of the race. While speed was significant, stamina was definitely required. Running several miles each day for practice improved endurance and eventually the times. Dedication was mandatory to proudly finish the 3-mile races. So run hard or run home.

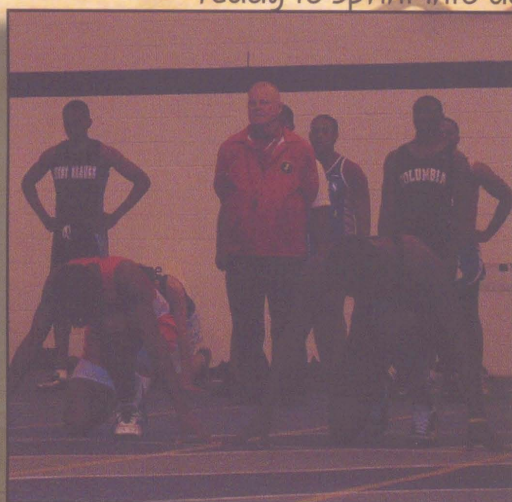

Indoor Track

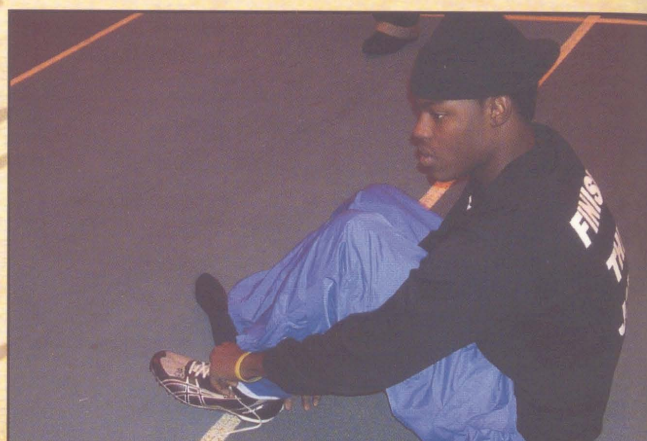

Yvette, Kenely, Markyse, and Jahod getting ready to sprint into action.

Finishing the job is exactly what we do everytime.

We are Barringer's
Royalty

Running at speeds faster than the normal human, this sport requires the whole body to work together. Thrusting and extending your legs as much as possible, striving harder than any other person. Pumping their arms to keep momentum going, breathing heavy to steady their pacing heartbeat; in with oxygen and out with negative thoughts. Track is a sport where the fastest run by and leave the rest in the dust.

Outdoor Track

Our furious Blue Bears are the best of the best. In every competition they attend, They always come out victorious above everyone else. Nothing but the sound of their cleats pounding the pavement surrounds them. When on the track they'll always be ready to sprint into action. You can guarantee they'll be the first to pass the finish line, leaving all the other competitors in the dust. Think you can take on the Blue Bears in a hurdle, sprint, or just a jog...well maybe you should think again!

Tennis

With grunts at each serve and return, Barringer's tennis team plays with great stamina. Chasing after each ball and running across the court requires a lot of energy. The team showed their skills at the net and on the back court by keeping the game going and having fun while doing it.

Emily Gonzalez on the attack.

Latoya Rhodes moves in for the kill.

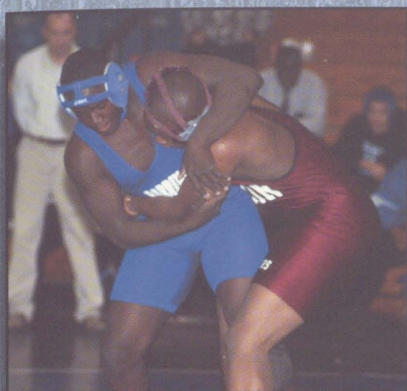

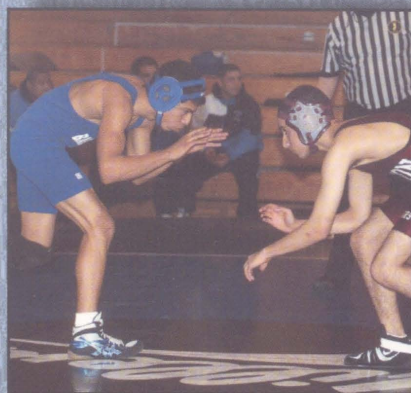

Senior, April Malcolm hits a strong forehand.

Coach Mosely, Latoya Rhodes, April Malcolm, Emily Gonzalez, Shanise Bowers

Wrestling

Barringer's wrestling team has proven their strength in their matches. Power was shown through pinning and take-downs. Although power helped overwhelm opponents, techniques and good maneuvers were definitely powerful in matches. Persistence was also a key part of the team and with it, the team came out on top every time.

Girl's Volleyball

The Girls' Volleyball team was energetic in all their movements. Their aces jolted past the opposing receivers. Their spikes were strong and intimidating. The girls were great in all their efforts for every game. They used their quick reflexes and all their skills to play a great season.

Bottom Row: Roland Velastegui, Martin Rivera, Fernando Ramos, Carlos Rodriguez

The Boys' Volleyball team moved swiftly as they kept the game going. They used their agility to return hits and save each point. They volleyed serves and spiked each opposing hit. The boys kept themselves ready and alert to hit each ball and do their best to win games.

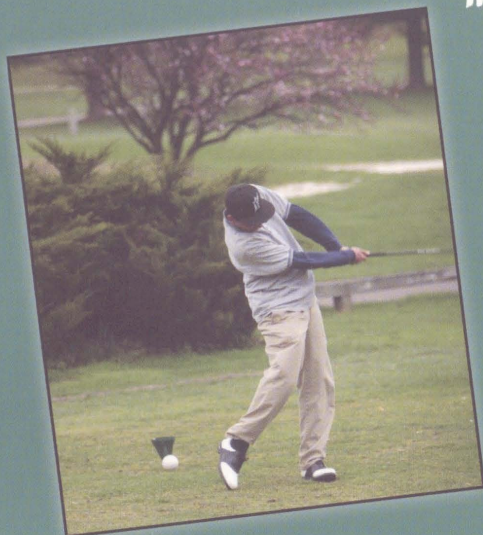

Carlos, Captain Jose, and Fernando serve up a masculine pose just before an important game.

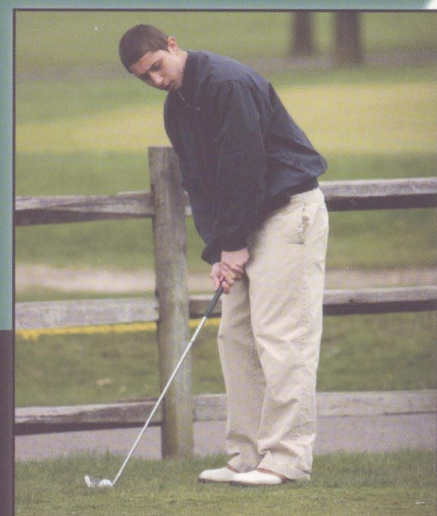

Both Jonathan and Yayah dive to save the ball.

Golf

Barringer's Golf team gave their best efforts and took their time to master the sport. It takes true talent to know how much strength to use to determine the wind velocity and then precisely swing the ball into the green. The players patiently learned the game and how to play each course and hole.

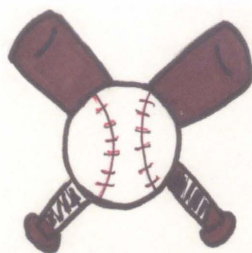

Jean Rodriguez, Eduardo Gullano, Jeffrey Gomez, and Maurice Anderson

The boys of the Barringer's Baseball team showed how much they loved the game by simply putting their best efforts on the field.

They sprinted around the diamond to score each run. They swung with full force to hit the ball into the outfield or even beyond it. The boys did well defensively where they fielded each ground ball, caught each fly-pop, or by simply striking the other team out. The team cooperated and conquered.

Team Captains

Soccer isn't an easy sport, but Barringer's soccer team dribbled around the field with great skill and control. Running aimlessly through the entire game with their one goal set in mind: win and scream "GOAL!!!" as much as possible. Kicking and screaming can be heard on the field, but the players and their amazing feet are the true stars.

Emanuel Anim kicks the ball before the opposing team gets to him.

Steven Osorio runs to kick the ball.

Edgar Giron prepares to throw the ball back into the game.

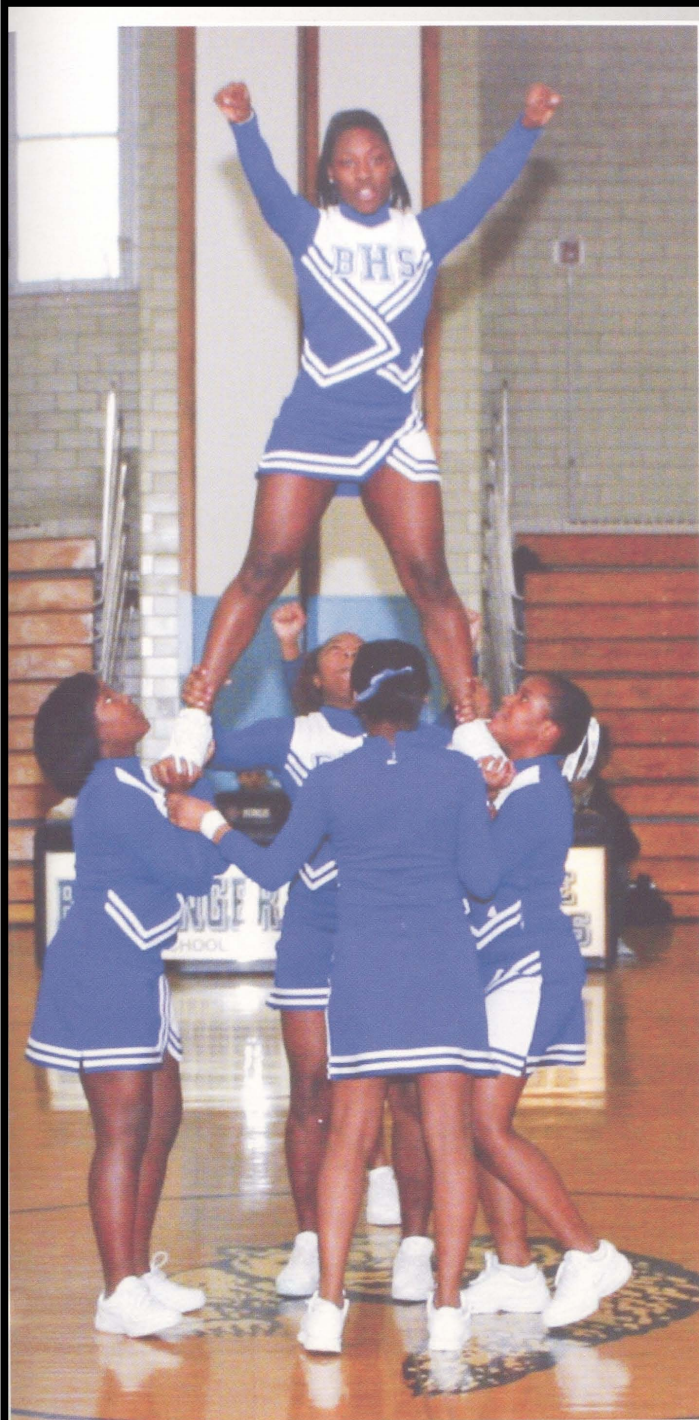

SOFTBALL

The Barringer Softball team played hard into the season to keep a winning record. To go hard in softball means to keep hustling on both offense and defense. It's a team sport where each person's contributions count, whether it be catching a fly-pop, hitting a home run, or pitching strike after strike. The girls should be proud of their teamwork on the field.

Cheerleading

The cheerleaders get Barringer's fans and athletes pumped up for the game. They cheer on the players with their enthusiastic chants and dances. Proudly representing Barringer, the cheerleaders raised school spirit from the playing fields to the high school itself.

Before a game, the girls practice their acrobatics.

This year Barringer fielded a talented boy's basketball team. Games were close and the team competed vigorously while trying their best. As a team, the squad was quick running up and down the court as well as excellent shooters. Exciting the crowd with well played games, the team had a terrific season. Coach Fischetti is looking forward to developing team members that will be playing together again next year.

Football

One of high school's favorite sports, Barringer's football team did their best to control the 100-yards.

Struggling throughout the year, the team stayed strong together. Strength and will-power kept the team pushing forward, but as a team, their combined efforts led them to success.

Activities

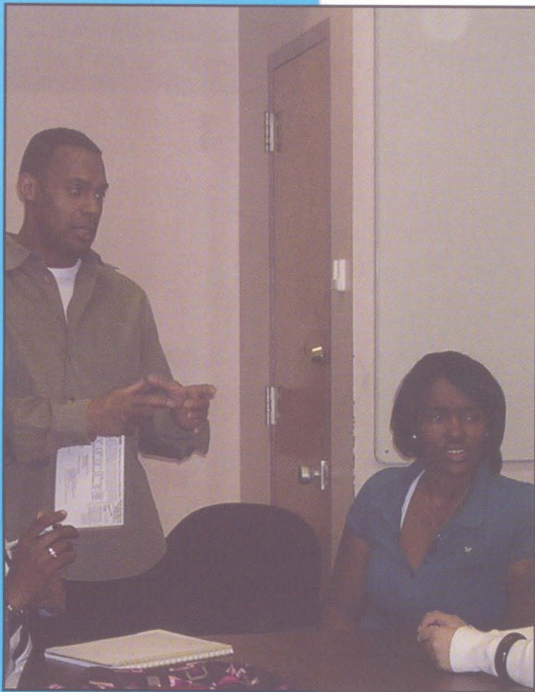

Our extracurricular activities added to the school's better side and its development. Each student that dedicated their time to these activities made the school a better and more educational environment. Every Fundraiser, Bake Sale, School party and other major event that the student body has enjoyed, were all results of the student's dedicated work. These activities provided the students with a little something extra to do after school if they wanted to be more involved. Without these programs, high school life would be very boring and everyone would dread coming to school. So for all those leaving their prints in classroom seats everyday, listening to teachers teach and lecture their tedious work, relief comes from pep rallies, cafeteria photo fantasy, inspirational senior meetings, and class trips, all planned and thought out by your student body. They deserve credit for every bit of sweat that poured from them, through these activities.

Give each and every activity the well deserved attention and respect they deserve!

Senior Committee

Senior class advisor, Mr. Keith Starks and class president, Victoria Scott discuss prom suggestions with committee members.

The Senior Committee is a group of dedicated students who work together throughout the school year to make improvements to the senior class. They work diligently to boost school spirit and raise funds to lower costs for the senior class. They work hard to ensure that our senior year is an enjoyable one.

Future Educators of America

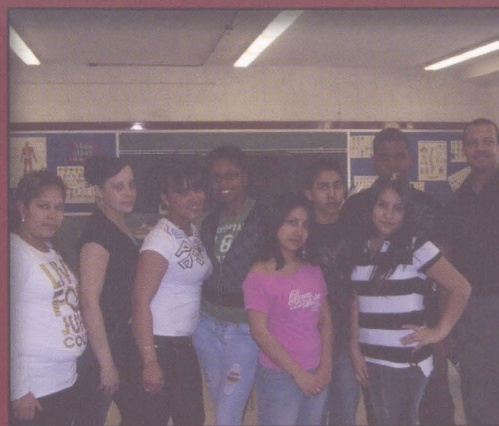

Mr. Mark DeFalco, Mrs. Stacy Coppola, Shinea Brown, Iris Lopez, Meena Budhoo, Brenda Boone, Quashie McNeil and Ms. Mary Cosgrove

The Future Teacher's Club of Barringer High School introduces students to the field of education. It helps mentor them through their journey of learning about the "ins & outs" of being a teacher. Future Teachers provide assistance in applying for college and choosing majors in the field of education suitable for the student. It also gives students the opportunity to experience being a teacher and test drive what it's like to "teach" and/or "tutor" students. In December. They then run a successful toy drive to donate new toys to local organizations for children less fortunate.

Mrs. Coppola discusses how to create a lesson plan

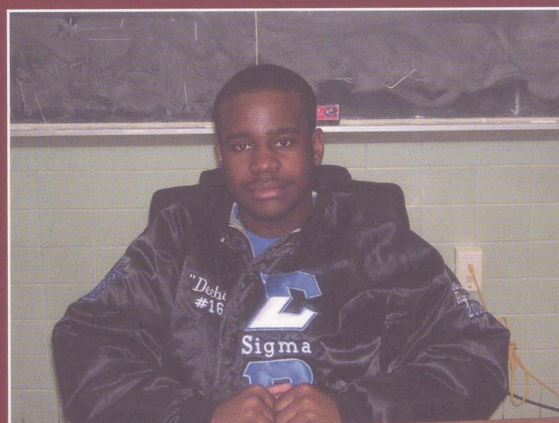

ASPIRA

The ASPIRA Club helps teenagers complete high school and go onto a post-secondary education. They provide guidance and training for teens through a safe and positive environment.

Sigma Beta Club is a male mentoring program meant for males to bond together under one brotherhood. Their motto is, "The next generation of leaders accepting responsibility and loving the challenge." Teen Pep

Teen PEP is the Teen Prevention Education Program. Teen PEP is a collaboration of the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services, the Princeton Center for Leadership Training and HiTOPS, Inc. (Health Interested Teens' Own Program on Sexuality). It is a group of peers and peer educators advising each others about healthy decisions in sexual issues, such as pregnancy, STDs, dating, rape, and of course, sexual intercourse. The group uses the peer-to-peer education model and works together to ensure safety in their sex lives.

Speech/Drama Team

The Speech Team is a most exciting extra-curricular activities. they practice for competitions on nine different areas of acting. Along with having fun the speech team members improve their reading, speaking and performance skills.

Mr. Richardson applauds a performance. Shaquille Swan practices an impromptu movement.

Drama Club is also a part of Speech Team and the members have the opportunity to perform a variety of dramatic productions.

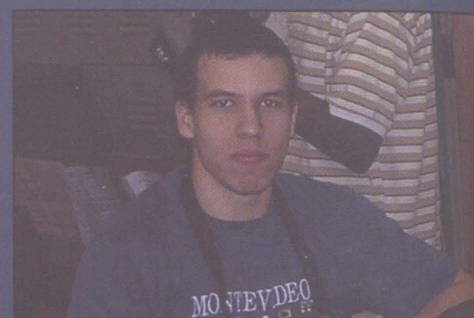

Mr. Richardson discusses the next competition with the Speech Team.

Robotics

Christopher Jadoonan, Webster Gray, Hector Soto, Pablo Echegorri, Isaiah Pulliam

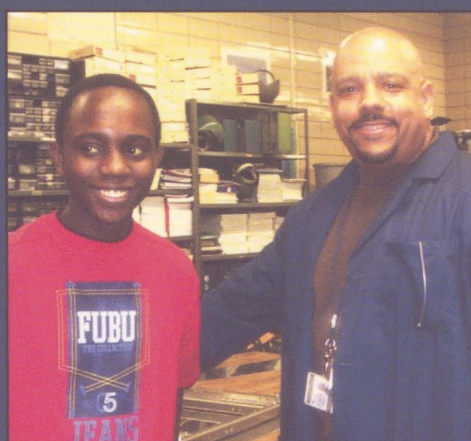

Team Captain, Pablo Echegorri listens to a team member discuss construction.

Robotics is one of the hardest working after school activities in Barringer. They have six weeks to design, build, test, and ship a robot to compete in the U.S. FIRST challenge.

At the challenge they compete against hundreds of other teams. They work together painstakingly to construct the best robots they can.

Christopher Jadoonan and Yurnaldo Rodriguez prepare to drill in preparation for an event.

Webster Gray and Mr. Guarino discuss the arrangements for the challenge.

Webster Gray and Christopher Jadoonan make sure the robot is in working condition.

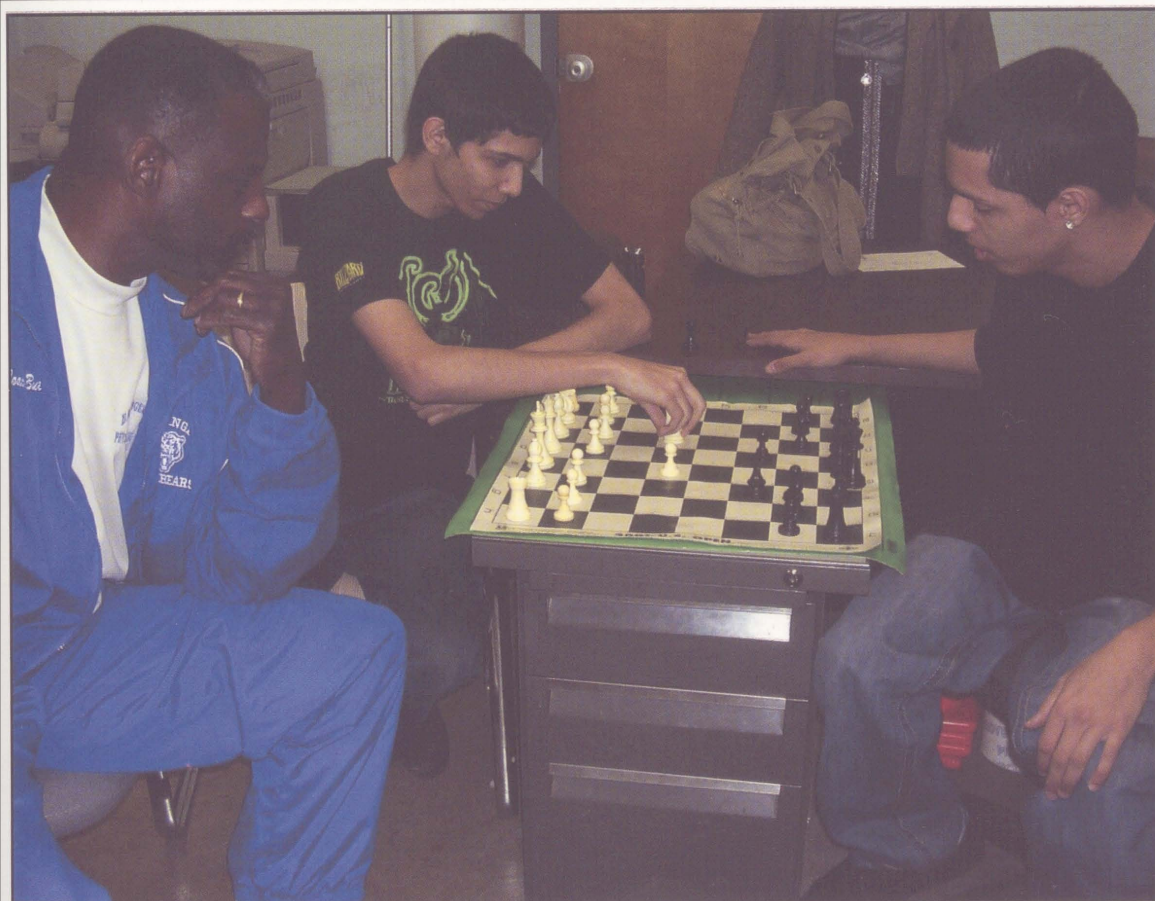

art club

The Art Club is offered to students who desire to develop artistically. The Art Club offers the excitement of expressing oneself and creating through the many skills of art. Members learn various art skills and techniques as well as a deeper appreciation of art and their environment.

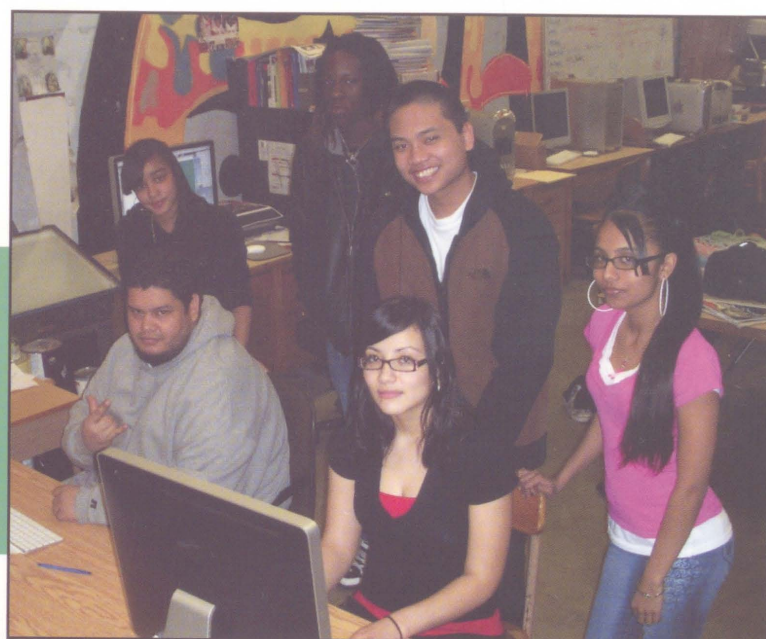

chess

Chess requires patience, knowledge, and strategy. The club works together to dominate any future opponents. They consider each other's ideas and see how they can make it their own. The club ends their games in check-mates and their days in victory.

Computer Graphics

Thanks to today's advances in technology, the Computer Graphics club has been a big success. When we turn on our television sets, or go to the movies, we see these advances translated into moving images. This club was created with the intention of showing students how important computers are in their daily lives, and demonstrating how images can be manipulated using sophisticated software. Students who participate in this club also learn how to prepare and produce images for publication.

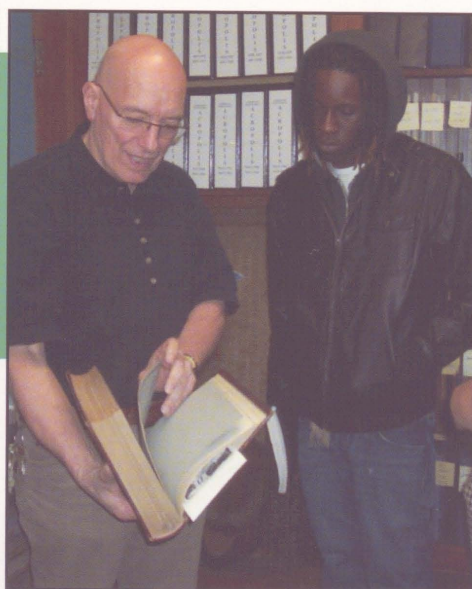

Photography

Photography is an important tool in the field of fine arts, merchandising, journalism, advertising, television, publishing, and computer graphics. Students with cameras are often seen walking about the school hallways, photographing events that have taken place at school. They learn skills and useful techniques on how to use digital cameras. Thanks to the supportive guidance of advisor Mr. Di Gerlando, the school photographers have been able to snapshot and capture candid emotions of both students and faculty throughout the entire school year.

Archives

Archives History Club keeps track of historical memorabilia that has been compiled through the years. They organize and catalog documents Barringer has gathered since 1854. The items that have been collected consist of historic papers, paintings, old issues of newspapers, yearbooks, and other handwritten journals. Archives are what help preserve Barringer's earliest and even most forgotten memories so they can be cherished over and over again.

SCHOOL BASED YOUTH SERVICES

The School Based Youth Service's Program (SBYSP), staff provides ongoing assistance to Barringer's students. Students participate in lunchtime activities as well as in after school programs. SBYSP also takes students on college tours, field trips to museums, plays, and amusement parks. SBYSP provides students with opportunities to gain knowledge that helps them make positive, healthy and safe life choices.

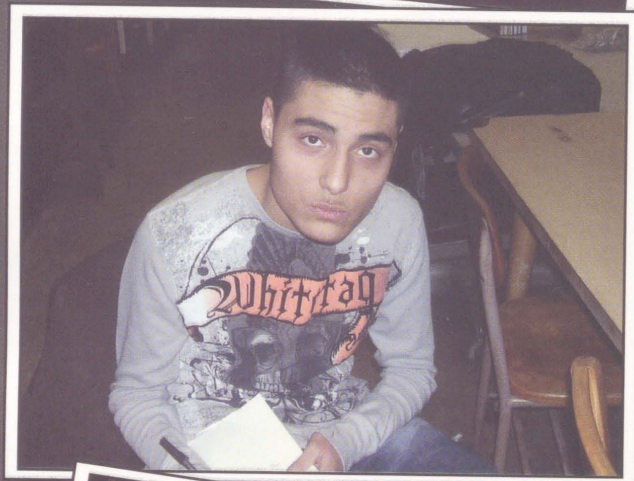

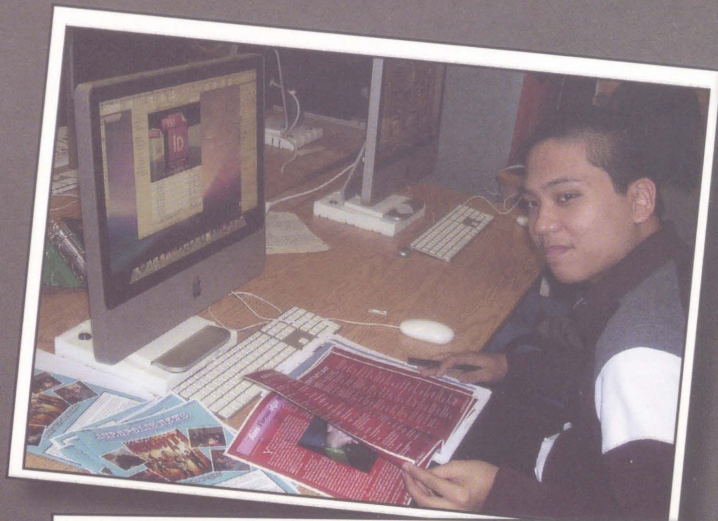

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is a group of students who are committed to serving the Barringer community. They serve as role models and strive to improve the academic and social standards we have here at BHS.

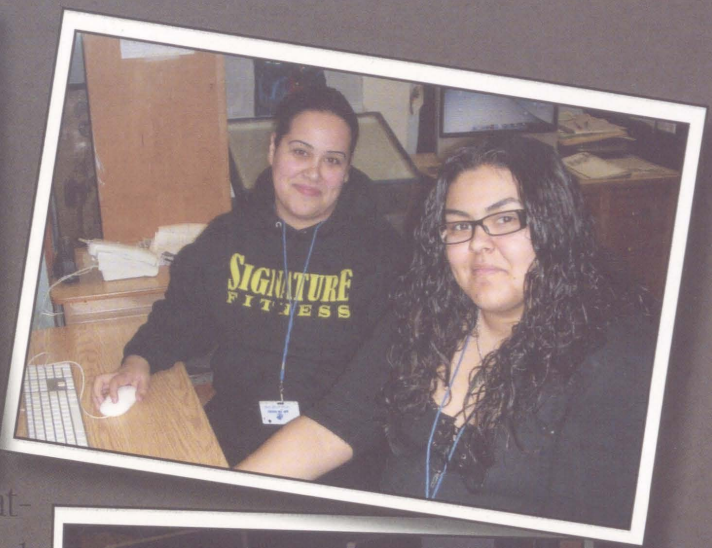

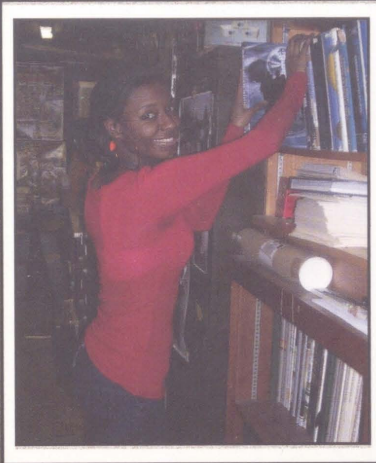

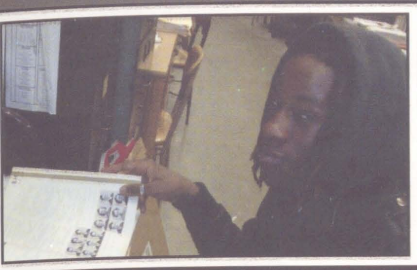

Student Council Advisor, Mr. Kevin Arroyo, Wahedaa Nasar, and Dania Bautista.

NEWSPAPER

After a slow and rough start, the Acropolis News finished strong and delivered every issue throughout the school year. The staff consisted of talented students who cooperated produce great publications. Each member wrote with skill and intelligence, and each article had relevance with an equal amount of importance. Some articles were insightful and included positions on the outside world around them. The newspaper informed students on certain topics that happened in school or about teenagers in general. When the paper was distributed students were seen around the school reading the Acropolis News. Each newspaper included humor through comics and illustrations. Thanks to contributing members the Acropolis News staff had a successful year.

YEARBOOK

The Athenaeum Yearbook Committee remained dedicated to their work every day. Their talent in writing and layout work helped finalize the yearbook and its pages. Without the staff's cooperation, these quality yearbooks wouldn't exist. As you glimpse over every page, the yearbook you are now reading is the result of the staff's work combined. These pages represent the team's diligence and artistic talents. Each member spilled their artistic poise and personalities onto the pages. Thanks to the staff, this Atheneaum yearbook came out with memorable pictures, quality designs, and for the first time, in full color.

Student Life

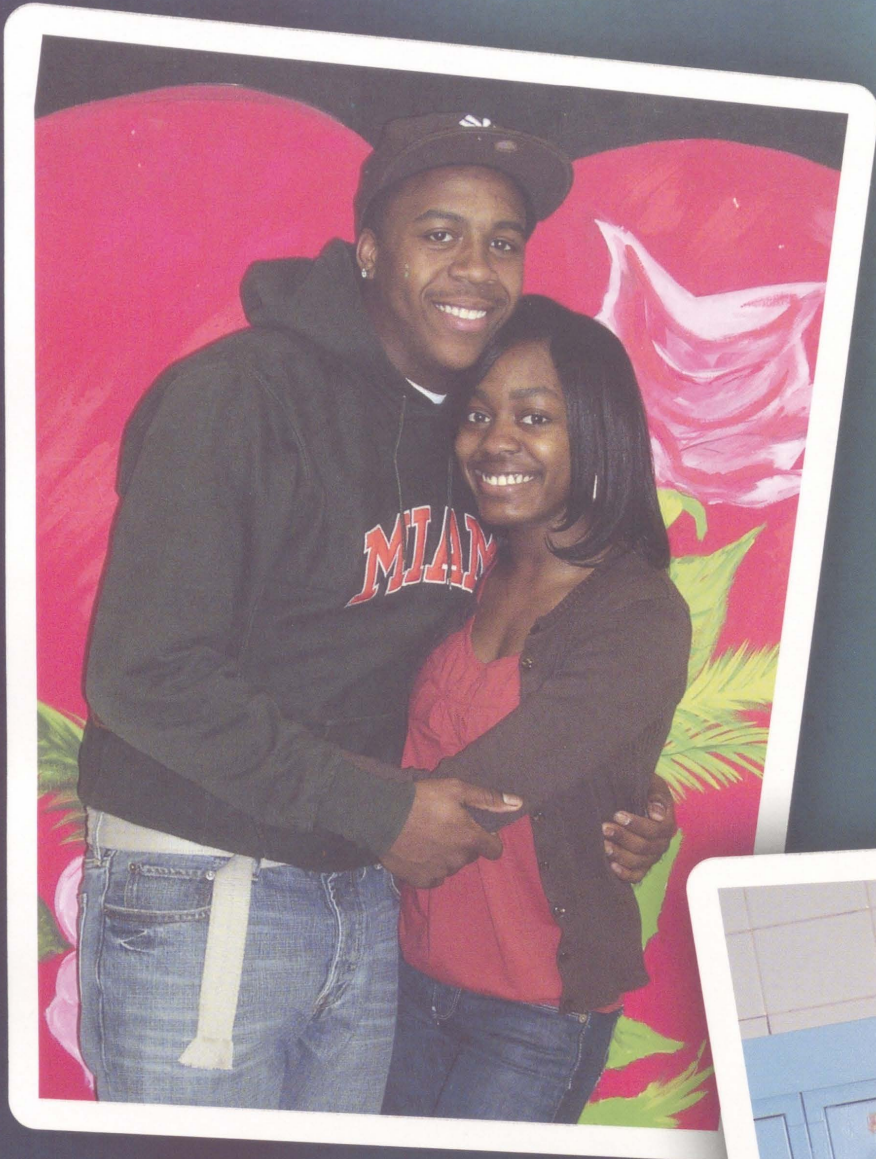

What more to explain here than our everyday routines. In this school, millions of memories can be discovered with every locker you open and people move on to bigger and better things in life, with every locker they close. Banninger is never filled with a dull moment: from every pep rally to every classroom party, all down to the very last assembly of the year. Now you get to see how everyone reacts and behave in their own environment around every one they know.

Each student graciously took full advantage of fun when they could. So many personalities to look upon ...so many memories that's captured and will never be forgotten, savor the fun.

Remember the fun and friends you made this year with each person you've come in contact with. Reminisce on the fashion, hair doe's and don'ts. Reminisce on what was hot in the year 09 and reminisce on important events that you'll never forget.

IN 2008 - 2009!

Styles of clothing, shoes, hair styles, and accessories change through out the years. Many will wonder what the trends were. Many will want to look back and question the styles. These were some of the many looks worn.

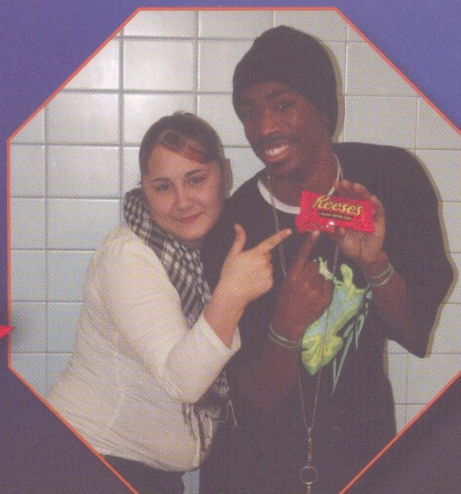

SENIORS CAUGHT

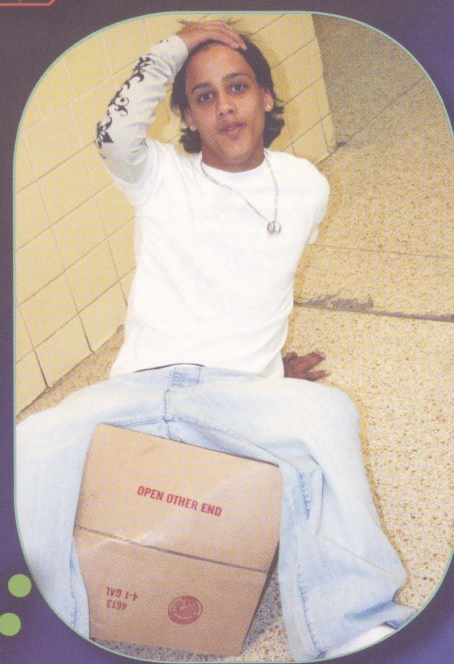

I Want Candy!

Students at Barringer always have a sweet tooth. No one can go wrong with some candy in their system. For some students it makes school time fly by and it's not difficult to find someone selling candy whether it's in the hallways or even the lunch room. Selling candy has been a great way to help out the senior class with such things as lower prices for prom, senior dues and other important things that come along with being a senior.

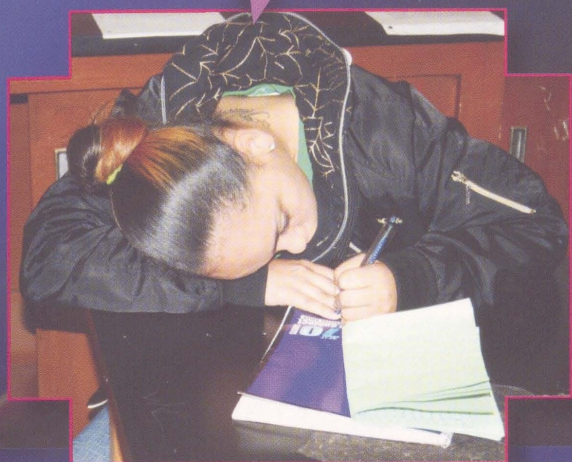

Clowning Around

It's not just school work all the time. Students like to have some fun too. Goofing around is the best part of being in school and it just makes everyone's day much more enjoyable. Why be cranky and bored when you could just live it up!

IN THE ACTION!

Snoozing Off

With all the work that is done at Barringer sometimes students tend to fall asleep in class. This is just another word for laziness and boredom. Senioritis has been spreading through out the school year and it's taking effect on others. Is there a cure for this disastrous disease? Well we kind of figured not because students keep catching it.

Always Representing

As Blue Bears we are strong and powerful. We also love to represent our school with the glorious colors blue and white. We put on these colors to show that we take pride being a blue bear. At the Pep Rallies we had a wonderful time as we cheered and danced away to the beat of the music.

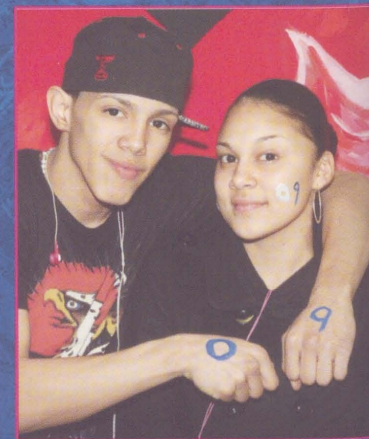

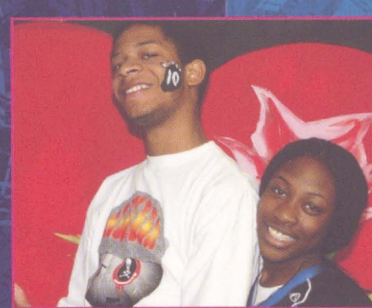

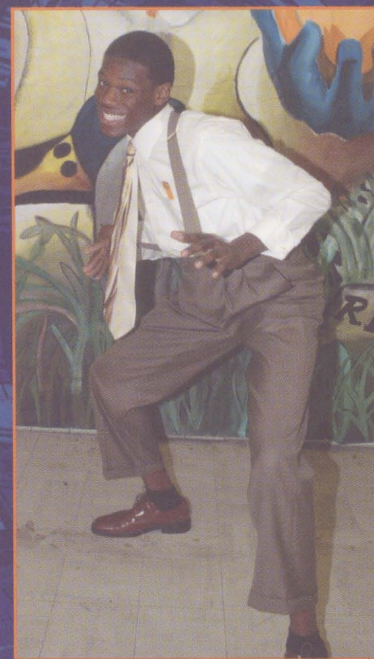

SENIORITIS:

A DISEASE THAT CAUSES STUDENTS TO HAVE MANY SYMPTOMS SUCH AS FALLING ASLEEP, TEXTING, WALKING THE HALLWAYS AND JUST ABOUT ANYTHING THAT DOESN'T HAVE TO DO WITH SCHOOL RELATED WORK.

Dress For Success

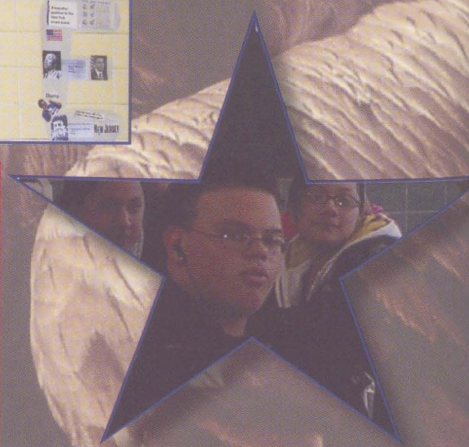

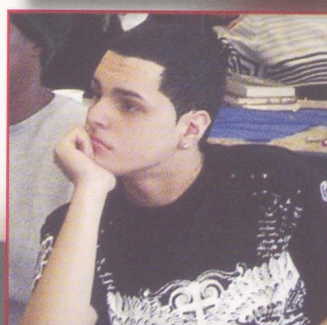

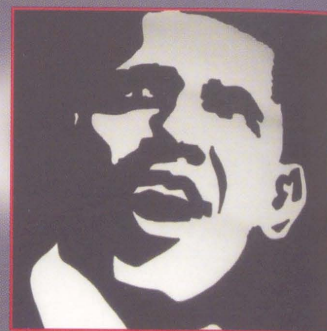

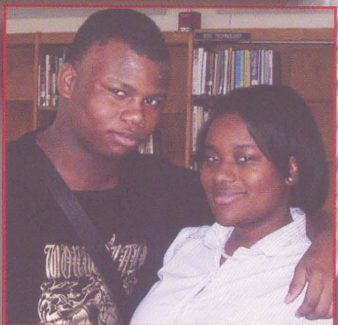

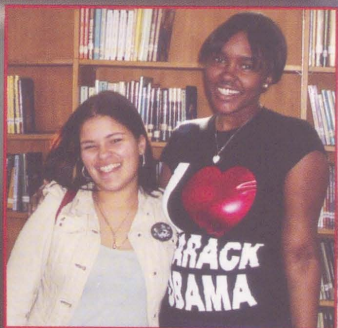

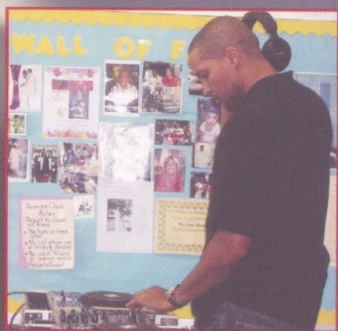

On December 19, 2008 Barringer held a Dress For Success Party, hosted by Ms. Wright and Mr. Jordan. Students were informed about etiquette. Everyone enjoyed the food, and the beautiful music sung by the choir. Prizes were given to the students who dressed their finest. Dr. Aviles showed students that dressing for success will leave a positive impression on others.

Inauguration Day

On January 20, 2009 president elect Barack Obama made history by becoming the first African American president of America, a day that millions will remember. To show our respect and pride, students and staff dressed in black clothing and celebrated with happiness.

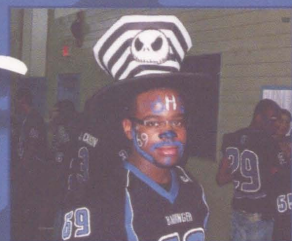

A 4th President

BLUE PRIDE

spirit week & pep rally

BEARS

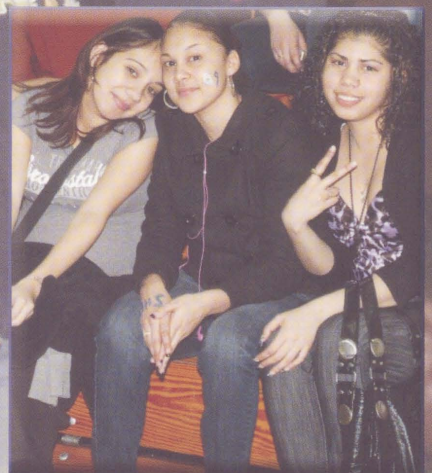

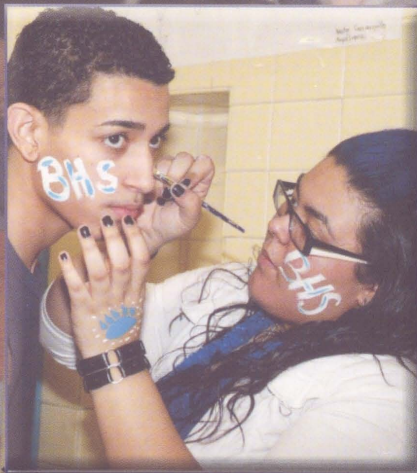

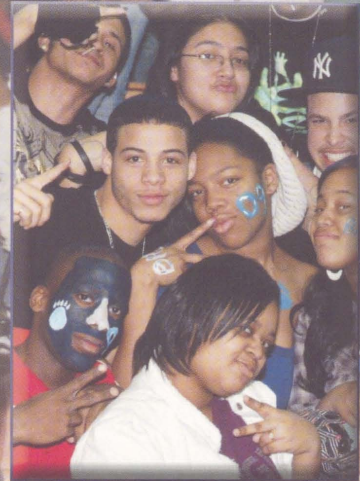

From October 27 - 31 we represented our school with pride by having a spirit week. It consisted of Mix Match Monday, Backwards Tuesday, Wacky Wednesday, Twin Thursday, and finally Friday was our best pep rally. It was celebrated with music, cheering, dancing, and a representation of our colors blue and the white.

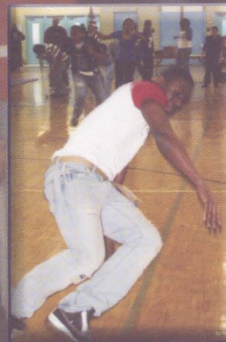

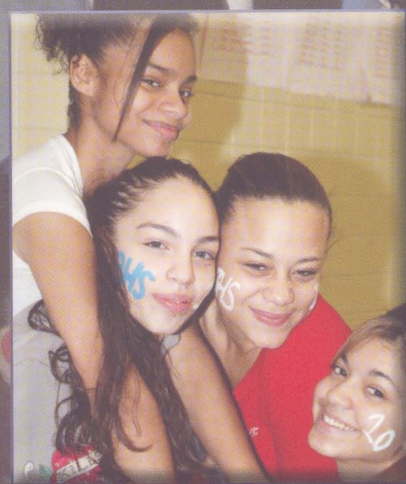

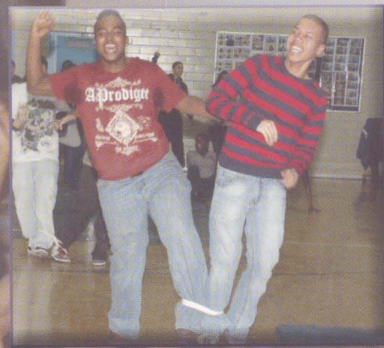

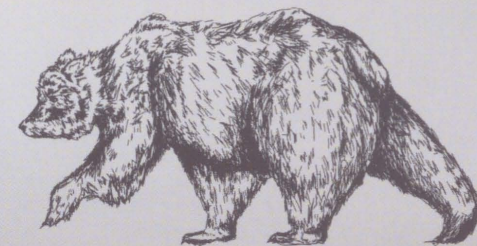

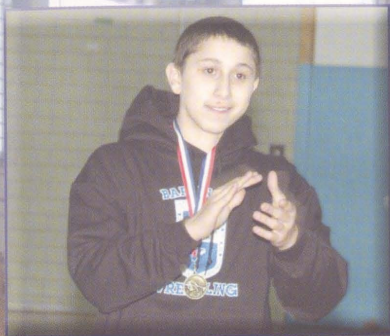

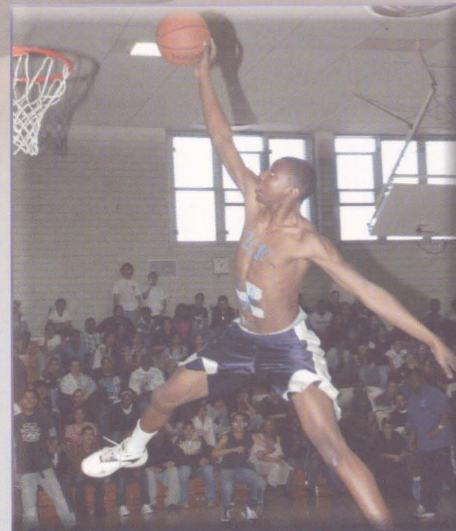

2nd Pep Rally

The success of the first pep rally lead to a second one that was held on the 13th of February. It consisted of many competitions such as modeling, tug of war, 3 pointer shots, slam dunk, flipping, bat race, and a 3 legged race. The sophomores brought victory to their hands by winning the first pep rally of 2008. The second pep rally was won by the almighty seniors who regained their glory and made it their very best. The festivities ended with all the students, staff and Dr. Aviles walking off the dance floor. This left the class of '09' to party in their victory and celebrate on the gym floor.

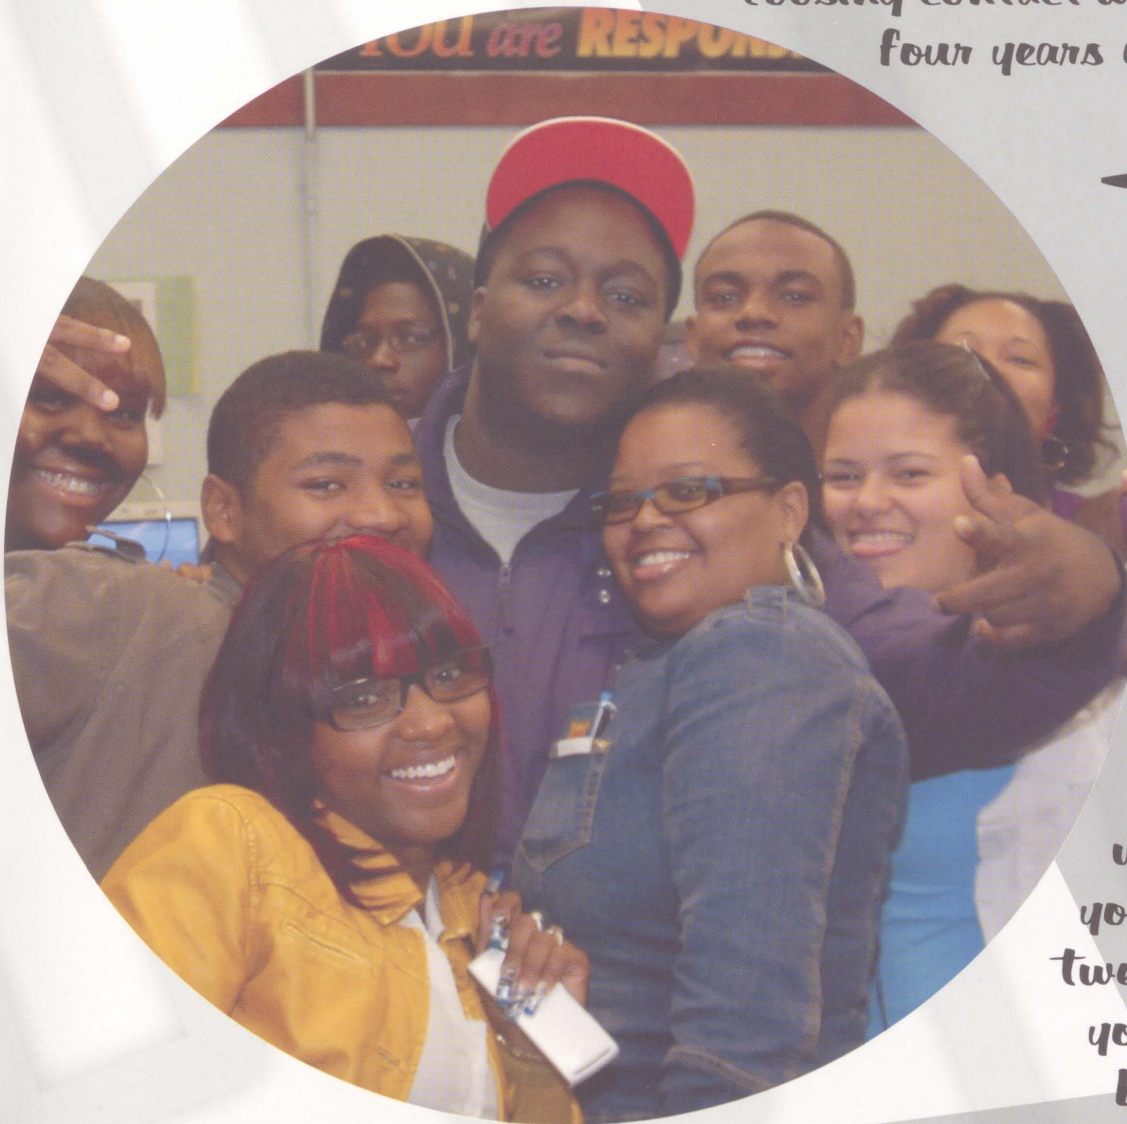

Directory

Think you know your graduating class well? Think you know the people you hangout with on a daily basis? Everyday you see the same people, watching and hearing; even smelling their fragrance day after day. Don't you think it's about time you learn a small portion of their life? Well, this is exactly the section that feeds your curiosity's hunger. Or maybe you love everyone so much you just can't stand the thought of losing contact with those you shared four years of your life with.

This section is meant to ease your anxiety of the future. Your paw prints may be left behind in Barringer's hallways, but there's always the future to make more imprints and walk them alongside your closest friend. In twenty years, you and your friends will look back and say, "I'm so glad we stayed in touch all these years!"

Beyond this page is everything you need to know about the people you talked to and saw everyday. Keeping in touch is a very big thing between friends, and knowing the person you tell all your secrets to is important also.

Yearbook wasn't

Helping the yearbook staff and newspaper this yearbook was amazing. I will always remember going to room 112 and going on the computers, looking at the Barringer yearbooks. Believe it or not, but I learned the history of Barringer. I never knew the school had much to it, but I will miss hanging out with my two good friends....Jessica and Mr. Di Gerlando. Last but not least, I will miss the class of 2009. Good luck to us all!!!

-Aquil Small

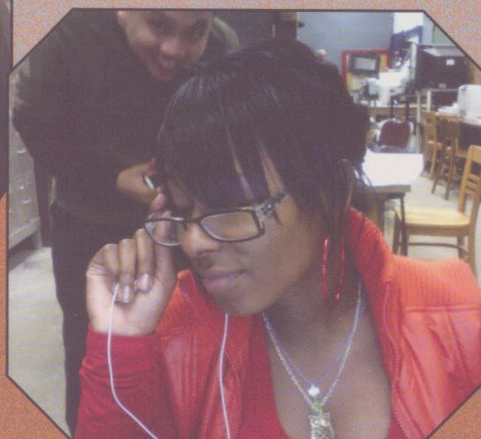

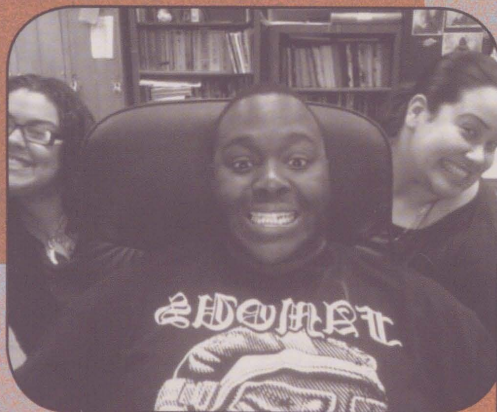

Three years ago I didn't see myself joining the yearbook committee. I am thankful for being able to do so. Being on the yearbook committee has been a great experience. It has given me a chance to appreciate the students who worked hard to make this yearbook a success. A special thanks to Mr. Di Gerlando for being such a great advisor, friend and role model... you're the best Mr. Di!!!

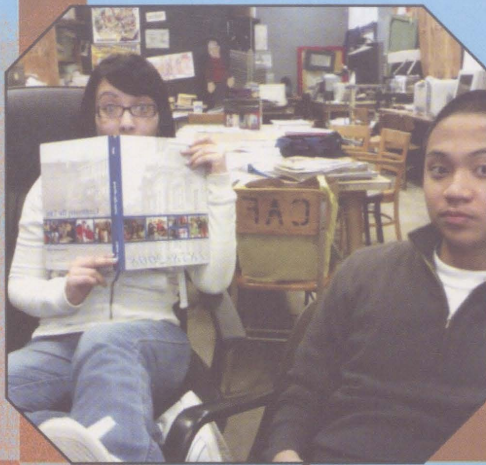

Love,

Vanessa Varela

Yearbook was fun despite all the work,. I got to have so many good times and didn't mind staying after school everyday. I got to tell all my great, great, great jokes! Yeah be jealous! I love all my peoples and thanks for everything.

-John Ignacio

all work and no play!

If someone were to talk to me three years ago about joining, I probably would have laughed. Being on the staff was surprisingly fun. We had some high points and some lows, but being in each others company way past school hours brought us together and closer. The times we shared were hilarious and yet time consuming...but I would do it all again. Special thanks to everyone on the staff and the best advisor of all, Mr.Di. I will miss every single awkward moment we shared.

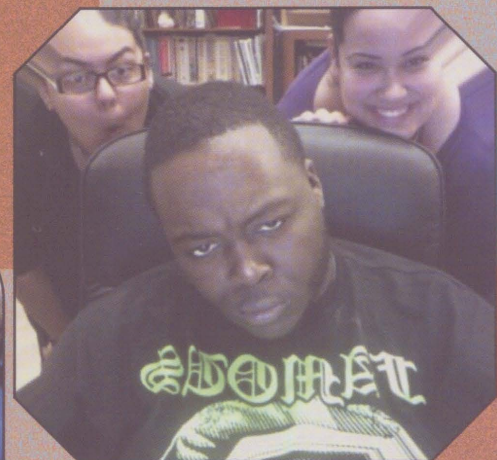

Love your Co-Editor in Chief,
Shinea Brown

Yearbook is something I am going to look back on and be proud I was a part of. It was strenuous at times, but I am so happy with the final product. I learned so much and had fun producing something for the senior class that will last for years. I hope the class of 2009 appreciates the hard work of the yearbook committee. I love the staff, like so much, almost as much as my love for smoothies.

Love Co-Editor in Chief,
Iris Lopez

I enjoyed working with the yearbook staff and I was very happy to take the pictures for the yearbook. I really gained a lot of experience out of everything.

In Memory

Robert Crawford

Sujeiti
Ocasio

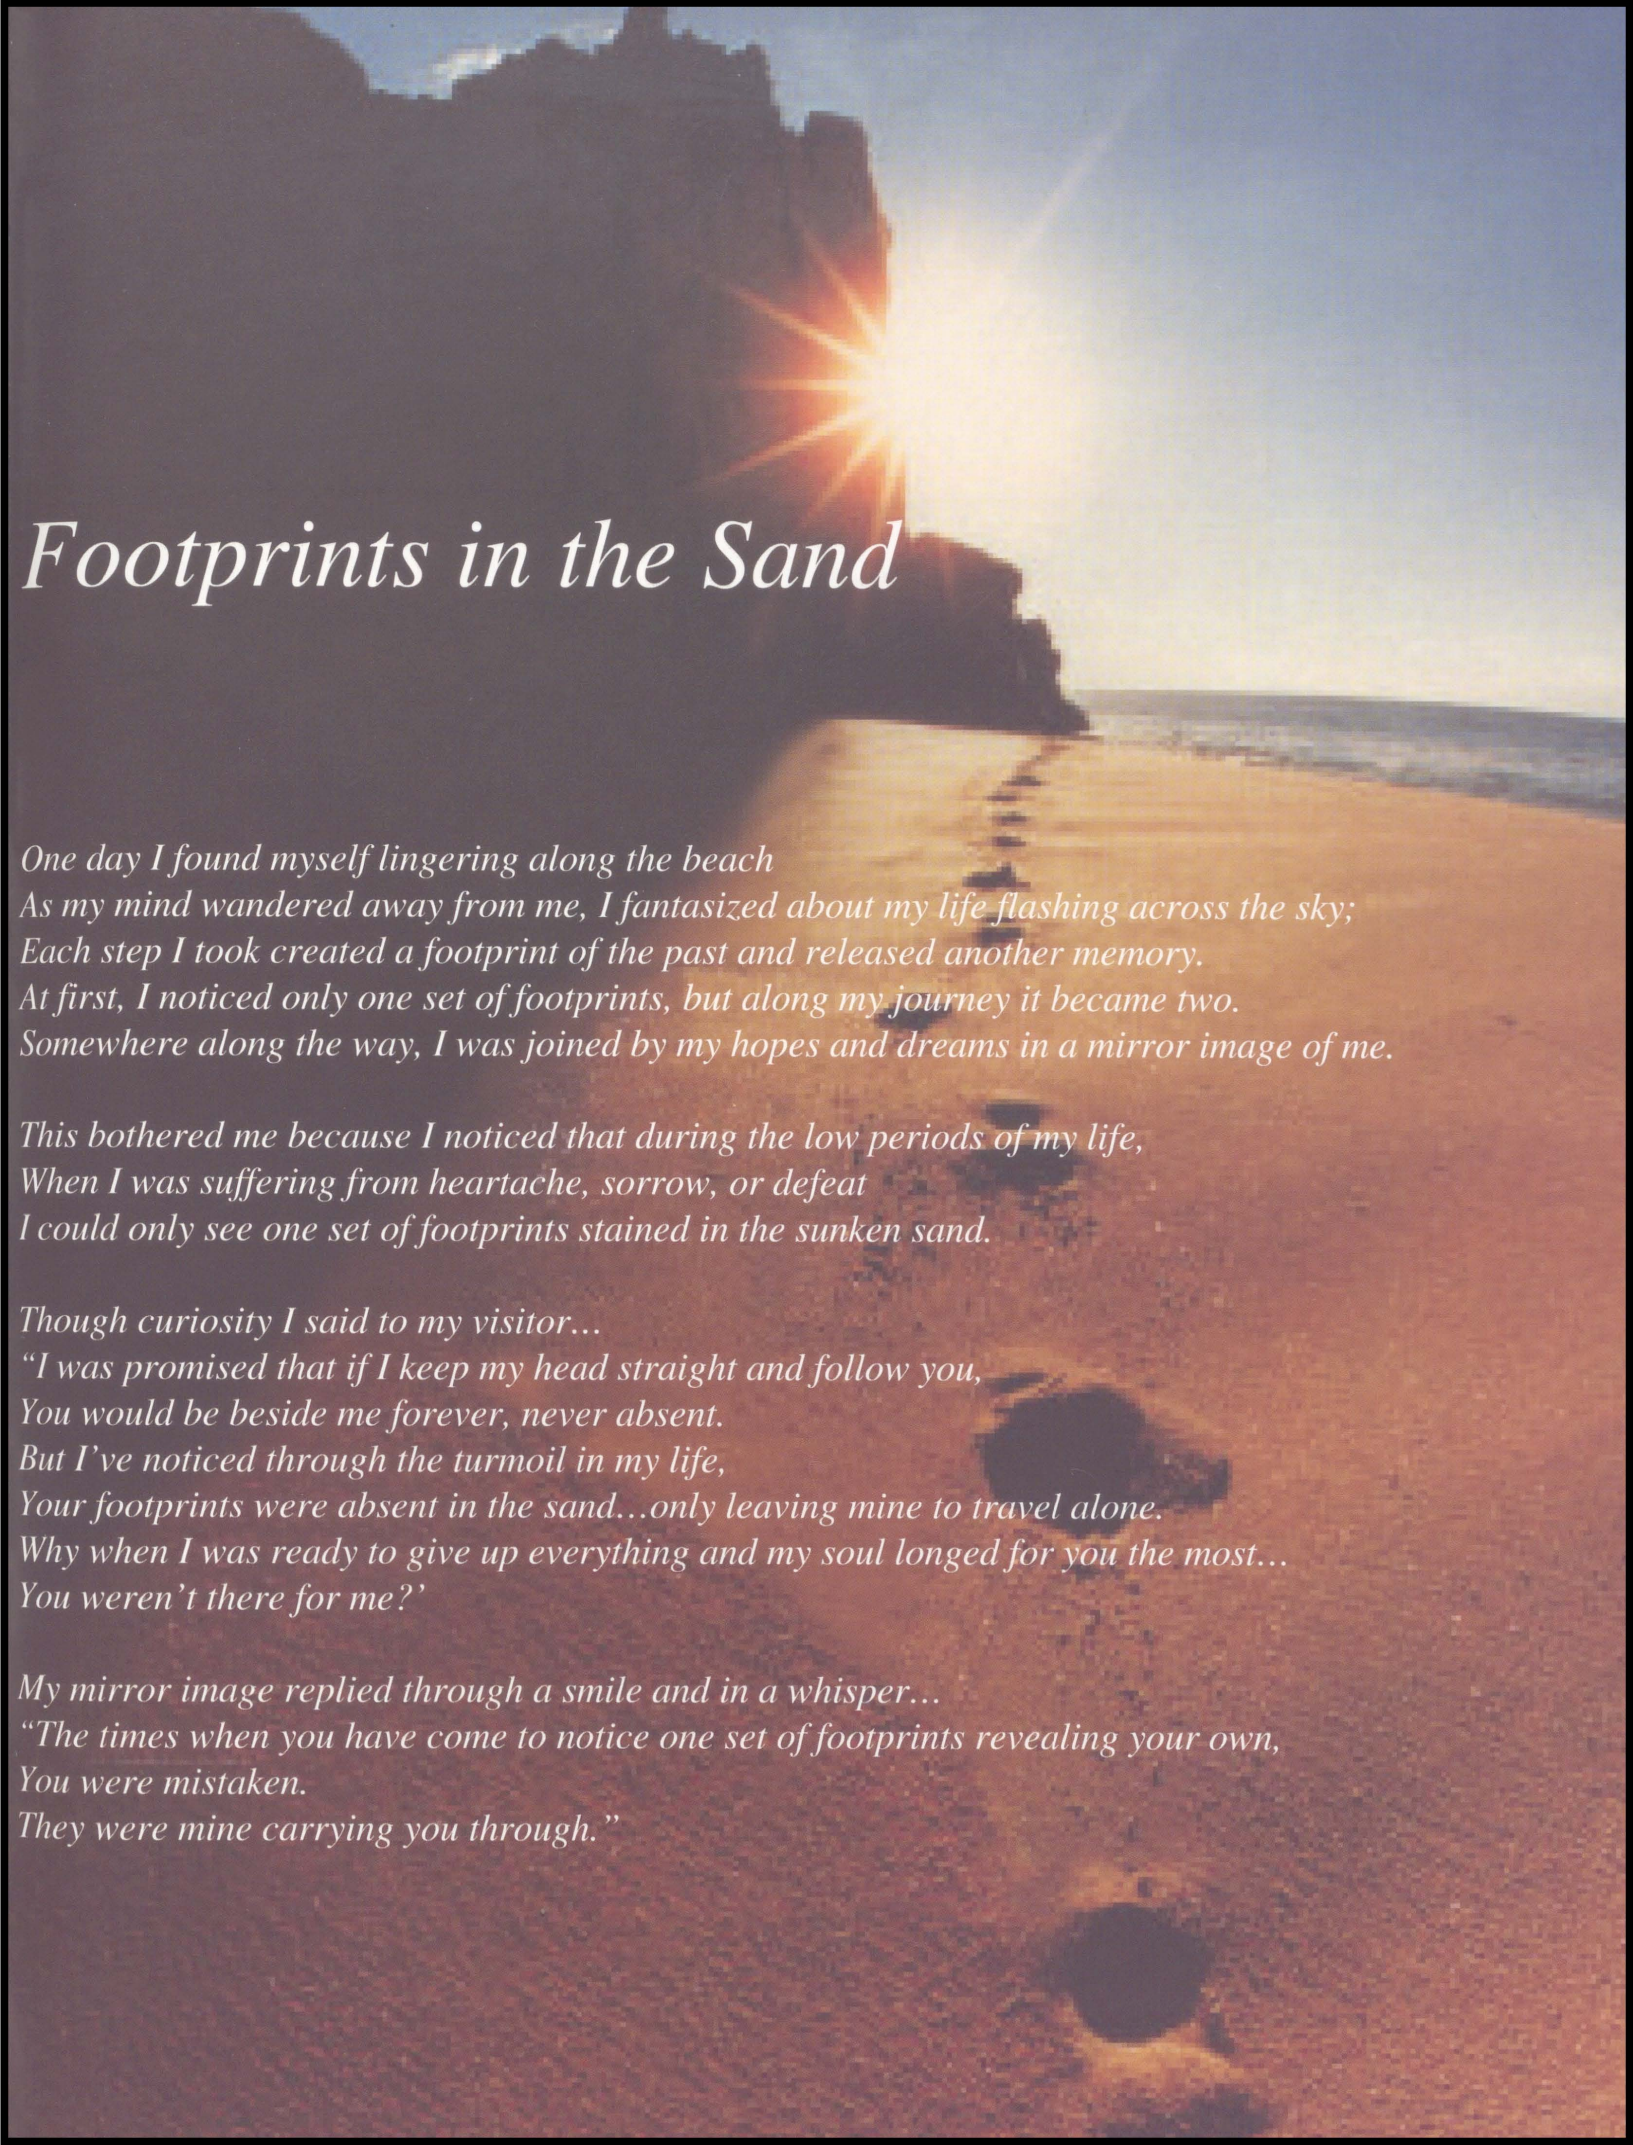

Whenever someone thinks of Sujeiti, a smile would automatically appear. All of their memories of her are as wonderful as her presence was. Sujeiti had such a happy, bubbly personality. It is almost guaranteed, that if you were having a bad day, and you happened to bump into her, she could put a smile on your face no matter what situation you were in. If you didn't know Sujeiti, you would think she was very quiet, but once you got to know her, you soon discovered, she was hilarious in her own way. Her laugh was one that if you heard it, even once, it would be very hard to forget. Sujeiti was a very determined young woman, and her number one goal that she set for herself was to graduate high school. Through all her hard work, she did just that. Any one who was close to Sujeiti in anyway, would surely be proud to say that they were her friend. In anyone's eyes she was the definition of a model student and true friend. Sujeiti was the type of person to who you could reveal a hidden truth, and she would know exactly what to say. You could always depend on her keeping all your secrets. Almost four months later, everyone is still swimming in the sea of denial. Sujeiti Ocasio was once an angel on earth, and now she is an angel in the heavens above.

Our humble Vice Principal, known around school as Kevin, Coco, or just Mr. Crawford by the students, left us as an amateur to life, September, 2008. With this uninvited news, silence and sorrow fell over everyone's hearts.

Born October 25, 1965 in Manchester Jamaica, Mr. Robert Crawford and his family moved to the United States when he was only 9 years old. Newark, New Jersey soon became home to Mr. Crawford and his family. He attended Maple Avenue School and later University High School. After graduating, Mr. Crawford received his Bachelor of Science degree in Electronic Engineering from DeVry Institute, then shortly after he received his Masters from Hartford. Throughout life he kept pressing forward.

Mr. Crawford served in the U.S Army, where he earned the rank and title of Lieutenant, but soon turned to education afterwards. Mr. Crawford came to Barringer and became our stern, yet fair, vice principal for 3 years.

Those who knew him surely miss Mr. Crawford. He showed his love for his students and our school by coming to school even though he was gravely ill. Mr. Crawford will always be remembered in the hearts of students and faculty at Barringer as a devoted Blue Bear.

Footprints in the Sand

*One day I found myself lingering along the beach
As my mind wandered away from me, I fantasized about my life flashing across the sky;
Each step I took created a footprint of the past and released another memory.
At first, I noticed only one set of footprints, but along my journey it became two.
Somewhere along the way, I was joined by my hopes and dreams in a mirror image of me.*

*This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life,
When I was suffering from heartache, sorrow, or defeat
I could only see one set of footprints stained in the sunken sand.*

*Though curiosity I said to my visitor...
"I was promised that if I keep my head straight and follow you,
You would be beside me forever, never absent.
But I've noticed through the turmoil in my life,
Your footprints were absent in the sand...only leaving mine to travel alone.
Why when I was ready to give up everything and my soul longed for you the most...
You weren't there for me?"*

*My mirror image replied through a smile and in a whisper...
"The times when you have come to notice one set of footprints revealing your own,
You were mistaken.
They were mine carrying you through."*

Barringer High School Song

So Our Alma Mater Proud,

Famed In Song And Story

High Between The Sailing Clouds

Catch The Sunset Glory

Barringer High Thy Name We Raise

Long May We Grow And Prosper

Through The Years We

Pledge Thee Praise

Loyal To our Barringer

Well, now that our paw prints have stained Barringer's hallways forever our spirits are engraved in the lockers till they close permanently. We're graciously bowing our heads and saying goodbye. Barringer has given birth to some determined and strong-willed cubs for more than 170 years. Each person has set their own standards and moved on through life rising to the top. We smile upon the many who have graduated, retired or are no longer riding life's on going rollercoaster.

2008's Principal, Carmen Ruiz and Vice Principal, Gregory Feehan have retired and left our hallways, but have not vanished from our hearts. They've left behind numerous memories that will never be forgotten. Throughout this hectic year of chaos and heartbreaks, we've experienced a devastating loss of the most beautiful people Barringer has ever nourished; our Vice Principal Robert Crawford and radiant student, Sujeiti Ocasio.

Crawford's voice will forever ring the hallways and his words will forever whisper in our ear. He may be gone but never forgotten. Sujeiti's beautiful face will forever be imprinted in our minds. Though each died an amateur at life, their paw prints left behind will be stamped in our hearts and therefore live forever. Finally, Dr. Glenn Wilson moved to become principal at another school. But with every loss there is a gain.

This year we gained a new principal, Dr. Jose Aviles. He has introduced tremendous ideas to improve this school for the better. And with a new principal came new vice principals, Mr. Lamont Thomas, Ms. Lydia Alvarez, Mrs. Cathy Bronco and Mrs. Shelley Perkins. Each of them on their new path in life has succeeded beyond what was expected.

So the year is complete and we've taken those eager steps to a brighter future, we can honestly look back and say everything we experienced was worth it in the end. One things for sure...we definitely set trends and memories like no other. We the graduating class of '09' will forever be remembered. We achieved untouchable standards, and our paw prints set goals for the class of 2010 to out shine.

Congrats to the magnificent and unforgettable class of '09'!
